Notice

Subject: Invitation for paper(s)/article(s) for 'FIMA JOURNAL'.

Financial Management Academy (FIMA) is inviting paper(s)/article(s) for FIMA Journal called Public Money and Management. Published once a year, the Journal purposes to provide a platform for practitioners and academicians for documenting their practical and theoretical ideas and emerging knowledge on issues covering public financial management (PFM), improvement of public service delivery system and development issues.

Paper(s)/article(s) may include but not be limited to fields of audit and accounts including historical evolution of Audit and Accounts Department, other issues of PFM and constitutional provision, digitized service delivery, training management, social safety net, accountability and good governance, future opportunities and challenges created by the intervention of information technology and the like.

The specific protocols to write paper/article by individual contributor are:

- it must be original, innovative and previously unpublished;
- it should not exceed 5000 words in length excluding references;
- it must be in English;
- it must be in Times New Roman Font, font size 14, line space 1.5;
- it must be referenced properly following the American Psychological Association (APA) Style of Reference (Harvard Citation Style);
- it may include charts, graphs or other pertinent illustrations;
- any photo used in the paper/article must be given credit to or it should be non-copyrighted;
- authors are expected to provide a short biography, a photo, address, email id and mobile number; and
- all submissions will be reviewed by the FIMA Editorial Board prior to publication.

Under the circumstances, mentioned above, all the interested members of BCS: Audit and Accounts Association, other serving officers of this Department and the external Resource Persons of FIMA are, upon instruction, requested to send their paper(s)/article(s) to the undersigned via FIMA's email (fimaocag.bd@gmail.com) by 30 June 2022.
